Customer Reviews

I'm giving this 5 stars because it is everything it claims to be. But my son got two joke books at Christmas: this and "Laugh out Loud Jokes for Kids" by Rob Elliott. At 7 years old, my son likes this book, but prefers Elliott's book to this one because this one contains a lot of things he doesn't understand. In a year or two, he'll likely prefer this one, as it has much more content and far more variety, but if you're considering which of these to buy, perhaps a 9-10 year-old would prefer this, but a 7 or 8 year-old might prefer something a little simpler.

I bought it for a birthday gift and it was a hit. All the kids took turns reading the jokes and the other projects that are suggested were greatly anticipated for when they got home. I was happily surprised when it arrived. The arrival was swift and packaging good.

I bought it for my 7-year old granddaughter but I was disappointed to find the the majority of jokes in this book are not funny. Maybe they work for an older child but I must admit, I did not find them funny either.

It's hard to get her to read, but she wouldn't put this down, reading it aloud to anyone who would listen, and a few who didn't.

It would be difficult to picture a child who could not find an interesting page within this book. Not every page would appeal to every child but the variety of the items could entertain any child. Alvena Stanfield

My ten year old grandson loves this book! He has always enjoyed knock-knock jokes, simple jokes as a small child. He has matured into tricks and riddles, loving to stump one of the adults in his life, as well as his friends. This is a great purchase for any kid who likes jokes, riddles and the like.

Bought this for my 7 year old for xmas. He loves jokes and riddles, and thusly this book. Some of it was corny or mistyped, but all in all it was good for a young kid. I don't know if I'd recommend it for kids much older though.

Loved these kinds of books as a child & pre-teen. This was purchased as a uni-sex gift donation for the local children's hospital. It is a great book to pass long hours of laying & sitting around for days on end.
