I'm a fiction author myself. I read many non fiction books to keep my fiction good. That's why I picked this book up. An SEO stands for Search Engine Optimization. It's just like MPEG, or VCR. Google has become ubiquitous with the SEO thing. It used to be Yahoo, but Google took over. It's like saying you need a Kleenex instead of a tissue, Comet instead of cleanser, and so on. This book explains the algorithm of how Google works, and how to utilize it to get to the front of the line. The internet is the world's biggest library, but all the books are piled on the floor. Google is our live virtual Dewey Decimal catalog. This book tells you how to work the catalog.
