I found this book when I visited Austin, tx and ate at the restaurant Thai Fresh. The food is all local and tasted amazing so I decided I wanted the book. The book has clear instructions and explains different cooking methods as well as tools for beginner cooks. The recipes are all handmade and taste better than any of the Thai products you find in stores. Definitely recommended for anyone who loves to cook!

Been taking Thai cooking lessons for a year and a half. (twice a month). This book straightens out some areas that were improperly taught. I have been to almost every country in the world and Thai is my favorite. We cook it about 4 times a week. I would recommend it to anyone who likes to cook. Very easy to follow.

I love this cookbook. The recipes are authentic tasty and easy to make. I love Thai food, and I live in an area where it's not as easy to get ahold of, but this book makes it so that I can have Thai food whenever I like. I would definitely recommend this book to everyone :)

Very good collection with easy to follow instructions. Good tips, a broad range of recipes with authentic ingredients and some nice updates, and then a few charming original recipes (like green curry pizza) that may help you win over your more mainstream American-fare guests and family members. Favorite thing so far: substituting sweet potato for carrot and regular starchy-textured potato in a massaman curry. It makes the texture and taste over rice so much better.

I have taken several cooking classes from Jam. Her book is easy to use and the meals are delicious. My favorite is the Thai omelet!

Thailand is a country full of beautiful people and really great food that is easy to fix and healthy for you too. This book helps you cook right for you and your family. Thank you and enjoy.
